FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

OPERATION ICE STORM
CARTHAGE WOMAN SENTENCED FOR MULTI-KILO METH CONSPIRACY

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. – Bradley J. Schlozman, United States Attorney for the Western District of Missouri, announced that a Carthage, Mo., woman was sentenced in federal court today for her role in a conspiracy to distribute between five and 15 kilograms of methamphetamine in southwest Missouri. Today's conviction is the result of Operation Ice Storm, a long-term investigation into the illegal distribution of large quantities of methamphetamine in southwest Missouri.

Ricki J. Gomez, 38, of Carthage, was sentenced by U.S. District Judge Ortrie D. Smith this morning to four years and nine months in federal prison without parole.

On Sept. 1, 2005, Gomez pleaded guilty to being in possession with intent to distribute methamphetamine. Gomez was stopped by Webb City, Mo., police officers on June 6, 2004. During the traffic stop, officers seized 54.85 grams of methamphetamine, which was 75 percent pure, and $9,559. Gomez admitted that she intended to distribute some or all of the methamphetamine to another person. Gomez also admitted that the money in her possession was obtained from the proceeds of methamphetamine sales.

Gomez also admitted that she was in possession of 10.57 grams of methamphetamine at her residence on Sep. 20, 2004.

Gomez is the second defendant to be sentenced on charges contained in an Oct. 14, 2004, federal indictment, to which eight co-defendants have pleaded guilty.

* Roberto Rodriguez, 31, formerly of Jasper County, pleaded guilty on Feb. 15, 2006, to participating in a conspiracy to distribute at least five kilograms, but less than 15 kilograms, of methamphetamine from August 2002 to Sept. 20, 2004, in Jasper County and elsewhere in southwest Missouri.

* Jeffrey S. Bateman, 36, of Joplin, pleaded guilty on Feb. 3, 2006, to his role in the methamphetamine conspiracy. Bateman also pleaded guilty to being in possession of a .22-caliber Titan handgun on Feb. 6, 2003, for the purpose of furthering and facilitating his drug distribution activities. Under federal law, Schlozman explained, it is illegal to possess a firearm during or in relation to a drug trafficking crime. When law enforcement officers arrested Bateman following a traffic stop on Feb. 6, 2003, he had a large knife concealed under his duster-style coat as well as an empty black holster, approximately 36.01 grams of methamphetamine concealed in his underclothing, and $1,315 in his wallet. Law enforcement officers found the handgun inside the vehicle, under the center armrest.

* Ronald D. Preston, 34, of Joplin, was sentenced on Nov. 10, 2005, to 15 years and eight months in federal prison without parole. On April 13, 2005, Preston pleaded guilty to his role in the conspiracy to distribute methamphetamine.

* Roy Rodriguez, 21, address unknown, pleaded guilty on Jan. 31, 2006, to participating in the methamphetamine conspiracy and to being in possession of a Titan .25-caliber handgun and five rounds of ammunition on Jan. 14, 2004, in connection with the drug trafficking offense. Rodriguez also admitted that he assaulted a federal grand jury witness, for which he has been charged in a separate case. Rodriguez assaulted the witness, stole his car, and stole property from his car, Schlozman said, in retaliation for that witness' testimony about the drug trafficking conspiracy. Under the terms of the plea agreement, Rodriguez agrees to pay restitution to that victim and agrees that, at the time of sentencing, he should be subject to a sentencing enhancement for obstruction of justice. In exchange, the government will dismiss the federal indictment in that separate case. Rodriguez also agreed that he should be subject to a sentencing enhancement for obstruction of justice because he led law enforcement officers on a high-speed pursuit on May 19, 2005, as he fled to avoid arrest. Rodriguez also attempted to flee from officers attempting to arrest him on June 17, 2005, when he struck an officer's patrol car with his vehicle, thereby causing damage to the patrol car.

* Marcus Glover, 26, of Joplin, pleaded guilty to participating in the methamphetamine conspiracy on Jan. 26, 2006.

* Victor M. Gomez-Coronado, 34, a citizen of Mexico, pleaded guilty to participating in the methamphetamine conspiracy on Jan. 11, 2006. The government contends that Gomez-Coronado was a leader of the drug trafficking organization, and that he possessed a firearm in connection to the drug trafficking offense.

* Jacquelyn M. Witt, 21, of Carthage, Mo., pleaded guilty on April 18, 2005, to her role in the conspiracy to distribute methamphetamine.

* Amy C. Lawrence, 22, of Joplin, pleaded guilty on July 8, 2005, to her role in the conspiracy to distribute methamphetamine.

This case is being prosecuted by Assistant U.S. Attorney Robyn L. McKee. The case was investigated by the Jasper County Drug Task Force, the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives, the Bureau of Immigration and Customs Enforcement, the Drug Enforcement Administration, the Joplin, Mo., Police Department, the Carthage, Mo., Police Department, the Jasper County, Mo., Sheriff's Department, the Jasper County, Mo., Metropolitan Police Department, the Carterville, Mo., Police Department, the Newton County, Mo., Sheriff's Department, the Missouri State Highway Patrol, the Central Oklahoma Metro Interdiction Team and the Texas Department of Public Safety.
